

Fresh Perspectives: Social Research on Antimicrobial Resistance Work-In-Progress Symposium and Networking Event

10 September 2018, British Academy, London.

Time	Activity
08.45-09.00	Registration, tea, coffee
09.00-09.30	Welcome and introduction (Clare Chandler)
09.30-11.00	Theme One: Care (Discussant: Helen Lambert) (15 mins per 4 speakers, 15 mins discussant, 15mins Q&A) This panel will explore how antibiotics take the form of care in contemporary life, whether it is in medical, farming, labour or household settings. Katharina Rynkiewich (Washington University in St. Louis) Beyond the Nudge: How Hospital-Based Practitioners Navigate Antimicrobial Stewardship Artricia Marina Rasyid (Cambridge University) The mustahiq pharmaceutical self as a trope for 'polythetic' consciousness: Ethnography of amoxicillin in Indonesian mosque-based health programs Meixuan Chen (University of Bristol) Physicians' clinical realities and perspective on antibiotics use in rural China Mike Kesby (University of St Andrews) Seeking UTI care 'that works' in Uganda: work in progress
11.00-11.30	Refreshments break – poster and photo exhibition viewing
11.30-13.00	Theme Two: Ecologies (Discussant: Komatra Chuengsatiansup) (15 mins per 4 speakers, 15 mins discussant, 15mins Q&A) This panel will explore how antibiotics and AMR affect and shape the entanglement of human life with microbes, animals, plants and the environment. Stephanie Begemann (University of Liverpool) Antibiotic policies in the UK dairy industry: unravelling the practices behind the numbers. Ms. Miriam Kayendeke (Infectious Diseases Research Collaboration) Assessment of the use of antibiotics and its social context on poultry and piggery farms in Wakiso District, Uganda Claas Kirchhelle (University of Oxford) Pharming Animals – antibiotics in global food production (1935-2013) Richard Helliwell (University of Nottingham) Making chemical infrastructures (in)visible: Environmental Imaginaries and the environmental sciences of antimicrobial resistance
13.00-14.00	Lunch – poster and photo exhibition viewing

Time	Activity
14.00-15.30	Theme Three: Pharmaceuticals and Markets (Discussant: Jens Seeberg) (15 mins per 4 speakers, 15 mins discussant, 15mins Q&A). This panel will explore economic and political lives of antibiotics and the ways they travel across the world. Md Fosiul Alam Nizame (International Centre for Diarrhoeal Disease Research) Perspectives of 'unqualified' practitioners on antibiotics in Bangladesh. Carla Rodrigues (University of Amsterdam) Self-medication with antibiotics in Maputo: practices, rationales and social relations Panoopat Poompruek (Silpakorn University) Rational use of antibiotics in Thailand: realities from local health facilities in central Thailand Nicolas Fortané (INRA – French Institute for Agricultural Research) The evolution of the veterinary drug market and antibiotics prescribing practices of French veterinarians
15.30-16.00	Refreshments break – poster and photo exhibition viewing
16.00-17.30	Theme Four: Knowledge (Discussant: Nik Brown) (15 mins per 4 speakers, 15 mins discussant, 15mins Q&A). This panel will explore different ways we think about and to come to 'know' about AMR and antimicrobial use in science, policy and practice. Luke Curtis Collins (Lancaster University) Who or what has agency in the discussion of antimicrobial resistance in the UK news media (2010-2015)? Esmita Charani (Imperial College London) Exploring the use of animation to promote the role of social science research as a tool for engagement with healthcare professionals on antimicrobial stewardship Salla Sariola (University of Helsinki) Living-with Microbes in the Era of Antimicrobial Resistance: International Vaccine Development in Benin, West-Africa Andrea Núñez Casal (Goldsmiths, University of London) Birthing antimicrobial resistance: Feminist para-ethnographies as interdisciplinary care knowledge practices
17.30-18.30	Networking reception – Board with post-it notes for 'What next for Social Research on AMR?'
18.30-19.30	Theme Five: The state of the field of social research on AMR and next directions Keynote: Stephen Hinchliffe Panel discussion: reflections and provocations – Nik Brown, Jens Seeberg, Komatra Chuengsatiansup, Helen Lambert (Clare Chandler as Chair) Q&A
19.30-21.00	Finger food dinner